

D&W ANNOUNCES NEW HEAD OF EU & COMPETITION PRACTICE

Leading UK law firm Dundas & Wilson has announced the appointment of Peter Willis as a Partner to lead its EU & Competition team.

Willis will be joining from Taylor Wessing where he has been a Partner for the past 5 years. He will lead D&W's EU & Competition team in providing focused and practical competition support for D&W's clients. In addition, he will reinforce the firm's ability to deliver day-to-day and strategic advice to its clients in their dealings with competition authorities, regulators and business partners.

Peter Willis was recommended last year in a leading legal directory for his expertise in the technology sectors, particularly life sciences and telecoms, and in regulated industries.

In the same directory, D&W's EU & Competition team was described as 'unfailingly professional and good-humoured, and often impressively shrewd for their years'.

Donald Shaw, D&W Managing Partner, said: 'D&W's EU & Competition team continues to gain recognition in the market and Peter is a great addition to our team - his depth of experience and expertise will complement the team's existing skills and further enhance the service to our clients.'

Willis added: 'I've enjoyed and valued my time at Taylor Wessing but am now very much looking forward to developing the practice at D&W. The team is already well recognised in the market for its professional ability and client service, and the opportunity to lead it is very exciting.'

It is expected that Willis will join D&W in early August.
